

THE NEW DEFINITION OF SPECTACULAR:

SPEC 1R

Bayliss

Biaggi

Capirossi

Custom graphics are just the start for these incredible new Suomy Replica helmets. Pushing available technology to the limits, the all-new SPEC 1R Replica captures the very best of Suomy's latest innovations, all in an extremely lightweight package bursting with features and technology sure to please the mid- to high-end market segment.

Among the outstanding technology features found on this helmet is an advanced Dynamically Variable Resistance Crush Zone designed into the EPS. This unique technologically advanced EPS design allows not only maximized energy management in the lateral and horizontal planes, but also allows unprecedented airflow from virtually the entire head area. Further advancements are a fully integrated Ram Air duct which works in perfect harmony with the EPS system. The exhaust channels and integrated venting system round off this impressive road race package.
